Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Subdivisions (c), (d), and (e), as amended on December 1, 2006:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection, copying, testing, or sampling of designated electronically stored information, books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection, copying, testing, or sampling may, within 14 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to producing any or all of the designated materials or inspection of the premises or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect, copy, test, or sample the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production, inspection, copying, testing, or sampling. Such an order to compel shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection, copying, testing, or sampling commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c)(3)(B)(iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA.

(1) (A) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(B) If a subpoena does not specify the form or forms for producing electronically stored information, a person responding to a subpoena must produce the information in a form or forms in which the person ordinarily maintains it or in a form or forms that are reasonably usable.

(C) A person responding to a subpoena need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) A person responding to a subpoena need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or to quash, the person from whom discovery is sought must show that the information sought is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) (A) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

(B) If information is produced in response to a subpoena that is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has and may not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved. A receiving party may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. If the receiving party disclosed the information before being notified, it must take reasonable steps to retrieve it. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) CONTEMPT. Failure of any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon that person may be deemed a contempt of the court from which the subpoena issued. An adequate cause for failure to obey exists when a subpoena purports to require a nonparty to attend or produce at a place not within the limits provided by clause (ii) of subparagraph (c)(3)(A).

AUTHORIZATION AND CONSENT
Release of Medical Information

I. AUTHORIZATION AND CONSENT

I, PATRICIA NAHALE, authorize Sherrie Takushi, Psy.D. and their employees, consultants, agents, representatives and independent contractors, to disclose and release all information described in "II. Information Authorized" which they have to Watanabe, Ing & Komeiji LLP ("WIK"), and its duly authorized agents and representatives, for the purposes set forth in "III. Purpose of Disclosure". In addition, WIK is authorized to use, disclose and release such information for the purposes set forth in "III. Purpose of Disclosure".

II. INFORMATION AUTHORIZED

This information I authorize and consent to be used, disclosed and released is any and all information concerning the medical and/or mental health condition, diagnosis, care, treatment and prognosis related to PATRICIA NAHALE (DOB:10/31/63), including but not limited to, any and all history obtained, medical records and reports, notes, assessments, evaluations, recommendations, counseling records, consultation notes, psychiatric and/or psychological care and treatment records, tests and test results, correspondence and billing records.

III. PURPOSE OF DISCLOSURE

This Authorization is for purposes relating to the lawsuit (Patricia N. and Guy N., Individually and as Guardians Ad Litem of Amber N., a minor vs. Paul LeMahieu, in his official capacity as Superintendent of the Hawaii Public Schools, et al.; CV00-00252 DAE/LEK) including but not limited to for purposes of allowing defendants to evaluate our claims, injuries and damages as alleged in the above-referenced lawsuit. It is specifically understood that WIK may disclose the requested information to the defendants in these lawsuits.

IV. DURATION AND REVOCATION

This Authorization shall remain valid and enforceable until the above-referenced litigation and any other related claims have been resolved completely, or for a period of two years, whichever occurs later, or until a signed written revocation is received by WIK. It is understood that I may revoke this Authorization at any time by delivering to WIK a signed writing explicitly revoking this Authorization, except to the extent that WIK has already acted in reliance upon this Authorization.

V. ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I acknowledge that I have read and fully understand this Authorization and that I voluntarily sign this Authorization. I understand that my physicians and health care providers generally may not condition treatment, payment, enrollment or eligibility for benefits on the execution of this Authorization except as otherwise provided by law. I further understand that information authorized to be disclosed and released to WIK pursuant to this Authorization may be subject to further disclosure and release by WIK. Such redisclosure of information will no longer be protected by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) and to the extent redisclosed shall only be for the purposes set forth in "III. Purpose of Disclosure" except as otherwise provided by law.
